Event Description

Chuckwagon is a an event in which Cub Scouts pull wagons from one "town" to another. Troop 54 will run "Camptown", where the Cub Scouts will compete in the Camptown Races. The Chuckwagon event runs 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM that Saturday. We'll need to be set up by the event start. Usually, there are up to 500 participants in the event, so we'll be busy!

Food

- Individuals should eat dinner before arrival at ICC on May 9.
- Patrols must plan meals for dinner on that Saturday and breakfast that Saturday and Sunday. Each scout will be assigned something to bring by his patrol leader.
- Lunches and snacks - you are on your own. The event usually has lunches available for sale at the East Lodge, but lines could be long.

Other Information

Dress for the expected weather and pack for inclement weather.

Additional event information is posted on the troop website (www.t54.org) under Upcoming. Information on what to pack is also on the website, under Camping.
