

J.N. Webster 2021 Theme Days!

Maritime Monday: Ahoy there! Don't be left high and dry! Whether as a daring buccaneer digging for treasure or an honest merchant haggling with scouts in the trading post, dress up in your favorite maritime garb for morning flags, Jack Sparrow related or otherwise...

Tuesday at the Tonys: Do you have a knack for Broadway theater or the fine performance arts? Then this is your time to show camp what you got! (Did you know that Staff Member, Tony Perreault has won 5 Tony awards? Make sure to ask him about them!) Don't forget your tall socks!

Wild West Wednesday: Man, feeling a bit warm today? Hearing the clank of cowboys' spurs? Seeing tumbleweeds go across the parade field? Then it must be the Wild West on the parade field! Make sure to wear your cowboy boots and hats just like you would in the old west! Don't forget to wear your OA sash as it is OA Day! Hi Ho Silver!

P-Jay Thursday: Don't want to get dressed first thing in the morning for flags? No problem! Show up to the parade field wearing your favorite pajamas!

Freedom Friday: Back by popular demand! USA! USA! USA! Wear any flag or freedom related apparel to morning flags to showcase your pride in the United States!
