

TELEGRAM TOWNS

Worcester

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2012

Boy Scout earns wings as Eagle

Timothy D. Froimson, 18, of Boy Scout Troop 54 in Worcester, has earned the rank of Eagle Scout.

Timothy Froimson

His last youth leadership position was to serve as Assistant Senior Patrol Leader in Troop 54, which is sponsored by Epworth United Methodist Church, 64 Salisbury Street. He is a member of Order of the Arrow Lodge 525, serving as its Camping Promotions Committee chairman.

During his six years as a youth member in Boy Scouts, he participated in over 135 nights of camping.

For his service project, Timothy led members of the troop in fabricating a toy box and portable steps for the playground at Burncoat Family Center, a residential and day treatment program for children with serious emotional issues, also in Worcester.

He attends high school at Robert H. Goddard Academy in West Boylston where he founded and served as president of the school's chapter of Students Against Destructive Decisions.