

Sept 22, 1976

Telegram Photo by CHARLES COCAINE

Getting Prepared for Heritage Weekend

Getting their history straight in the GAR Building on Pearl Street yesterday for Worcester's Heritage Weekend May 15 and 16 are five Boy Scouts guide to-be from Troop 54. Their instructor is Ms. Ellen Bezerin, assistant curator of education at Worcester Art Museum and coordinator of guided tours for Heritage Weekend. More than 200 teen-age and adult guides will give tours through 23 buildings and churches participating in the city's Heritage Weekend open house. There will be free bus service on the "trail" and other attractions. The Scouts are (from left) David G. Harris, William P. Sharpe, David C. Grusell, John L. Carlson and Jeffrey J. Klunk.